

Coromandel rivers that are not canyons

Adapted from an Email from Jim Morrow, Auckland Tramping Club

“Cant say that canyoning as such is my thing but I love the Coromandel rivers and streams, they are what Coromandel tramping is about.

Waiwawa River. Apart from a steep drop off the plateau at the head the Waiwawa is just a nice 2 day tramp to Coroglen, no waterfalls or gorges.

Futher north the Te Mata, Waikawau, and Kaimarama rivers again are pleasant tramping but nothing to offer for canyoning.”
